The William Stafford Archives website allows students to explore the evolution of a Stafford poem from its inception as a daily writing through manuscript revisions and edits to its eventual published form. williamstaffordarchives.org

Librarian Kate Rubick teamed up with Assistant Professor of Anthropology Oren Kosansky to teach Sociology and Anthropology students how to find and identify academic literature that represents mid-level theory in those disciplines.

In a practicum taught by staff in Special Collections, History major Nathalie Figueroa ’10 analyzed and organized the papers of Oregon’s oldest ranch. Thanks to her work, the Hay Creek Ranch papers are now accessible to researchers at the Jefferson County Historical Society.

Lewis & Clark Sophomore Marni Bates ’12 read from her teen authored memoir, Marni, on Friday, April 23 2010 in the Library Classroom.
IN MEMORIAM

JAMES J. KOPP

Director of Aubrey R. Watzek Library from 1999 until his death in August 2010, James J. Kopp led the Library through a decade of unprecedented growth and change.

Jim was a kind and humorous man with a passion for scholarly inquiry and a dedication to the library’s role in liberal arts education.

IN 2009-2010: BY THE NUMBERS

344,300 VISITS TO THE LIBRARY
306,828 VISITS TO THE LIBRARY WEBSITE
88,775 ITEMS CHECKED OUT
3700 REFERENCE INQUIRIES
123 RESEARCH CONSULTATIONS
70 INSTRUCTION SESSIONS